

Name: _____ Class: _____

1 Choose the correct options.

- 0 Putting your arm around someone is an example of body posture (contact).
- 1 People often use head postures / movements to show if they agree with you or not.
- 2 Good eye expression / contact shows that someone is involved in the conversation.
- 3 Your posture / voice says a lot about how you're feeling. The way you stand can say a lot about you.
- 4 She has amazing facial expressions / movements so we always know how she's feeling. She can't hide it.
- 5 Karl always moves his hands when he speaks. I've never seen anyone who uses contact / gestures more than him.

_____ / 5

2 Complete the sentences with the words from the box.

eye	eyebrows	hug	lower	nod	point	raise	shrug
-----	----------	-----	-------	-----	-------	-------	-------

- 0 He looked me in the eye when he told me the truth.
- 1 Georgia didn't _____ her voice, but she was angry.
- 2 Don't _____ your finger at me. It's very rude.
- 3 Gemma gives friends a _____ when she meets them.
- 4 David didn't believe what I was saying so he raised his _____, as if to question me.
- 5 You need to _____ your head if you agree with me.
- 6 Does he _____ his shoulders when you ask him something.
- 7 Did he _____ his voice so no one could hear him?

_____ / 7

3 Complete the sentences with the noun forms of the verbs from the box.

define	describe	discuss	explain	inform	interrupt	pronounce	repeat	suggest
--------	----------	---------	---------	--------	-----------	-----------	--------	---------

- 0 We didn't like his suggestion to change the timetable.
- 1 I think her _____ of that word is excellent.
- 2 I can only learn new words by the _____ of them.
- 3 What's the _____ of 'insomnia'? I don't know this word.
- 4 Could you give me some more _____ about the job?
- 5 There were _____ from the audience while I was talking.
- 6 I need a(n) _____ for your behaviour. Why did you do it?
- 7 We had a really good _____ about the topic.
- 8 I gave her a(n) _____ of the man I'd seen. He was tall, dark and handsome.

_____ / 8

Total: _____ / 20